The Centre for Excellence in Child and Family Welfare presents:

Business Manager Network Meeting

8th March 2013

Our Presenters

Jon Reid, Director of Reporting and Red Tape Reduction
Jon joined the ACNC from the Australian Securities and Investments Commission (ASIC). Over a five year period, he held various roles at ASIC, primarily in teams responsible for education, compliance, investigations and enforcement. His most recent role at ASIC was as a Senior Financial Investigator, responsible for offering forensic accounting support on investigations undertaken by deterrence teams.
Jon comes from private sector roles in accounting, taxation compliance and insolvency. He has been a member of the Institute of Chartered Accountants Australia for eight years. Jon has a keen interest in the charities and not-for-profit sector and the significant role it plays in Australian society.

Juanita Pope
Juanita is the Director at PilchConnect. She was admitted to legal practice in 2004, and since then has worked in a range of professional environments including a court, university, corporate law firm and the arts, as well as in the community sector. At PilchConnect, Juanita regularly advises and facilitates training and information on not-for-profit legal issues groups, and also has expertise in intellectual property law and Aboriginal & Torres Strait Islander legal policy. Juanita is a keen supporter of the arts, and volunteers as a committee member of a small not-for-profit theatre company.
